to the same person in several ways

This is reference to Public Administration Circular 6/2008 dated 06.02.2008 issued regarding above subject.

It is informed that, payment of cost of living allowance for same person (pensioner) at the rate of 50% in two occasions is not restricted. However, the cost of living allowance pays exceeding two occasions, the overpayment should be discontinued. (Limited number of these incidents may be existed)

If a pensioner draws salary and cost of living allowance together also from a government institution as mentioned in declaration submitted by each pensioner, action should be taken to inform relevant institution to not to pay total allowance concerned or a certain portion thereof.
