Pension Circular 15/2009 (Amendment I)

To all Secretaries of Ministries,
Chief Secretaries of Provincial Councils,
Heads of Departments,
District Secretaries/ Divisional Secretaries,

Re-employment of retired public officers and revision of pension

This is further to Pension Circular 15/2009 dated 21.08.2009 on re-employment of retired public officers and revision of pension.

If a public officer re-employed after his retirement, the salary increment can be calculated for the revision of his pension only where if the re-employment appointment letter pronounces that the salary increments would be granted for the re-employed officer. However if the appointment letter remain silence about granting salary increments, the pension should be revised subject to not calculating the increments.

Further kindly notified that the officers to be entitled to getting revised the pension should be served for continuous 02 years.
